

SPORTS, D1
SANDERS VS. FREENEY
Who is the MVP
of the Colts' D?
 ALSO IN SPORTS: Will
 Tech High School join the MIC?

SMART SHOPPING, E1
HOW TO THROW
A BASH
ON A BUDGET

+ INDYSTAR.COM/WEATHER How long will rain linger in Central Indiana? Check our forecasts and radar maps.

THE INDIANAPOLIS STAR

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 2008 ★ "Where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty" II COR. 3:17 ★ 75 CENTS ★ CITY EDITION

Style

Our shopping guru
 Jenny Elig shares
 her favorite finds
 this week:

also available at Gallery 116 (www.gallery116.com) in Fishers.

» If you're yarn-mad and looking for another fix, "Knitting Daily TV" might have your cure. The show, filmed in Rockville, Ind., brings you the best of knitting, crochet, stitching, felting, spinning and other fiber crafts. It features guests who share their fiber expertise, and one-of-a-kind designs using the latest yarns, techniques and more. Some cable systems carry the show on WIPB-TV, or you can buy episodes 1-13 (for $39.99). Meet the hosts and get more information at www.knittingdailytv.com.

» You may have passed soy candles at the store and wondered what the big deal was. The big deal is that these candles burn cleanly and evenly. Twisted Wick, an Indiana-based company owned by Rich and Jodi Scheve, sells a host of soy candles (starting at $5.99) and spa products (starting at $4). Visit www.twistedwick.com to shop, or head to the company's Nashville, Ind., store. Twisted Wick candles are » Forget today's fashion icons: Coco Chanel was where it was at; now she's getting her props from Lifetime Television. Shirley MacLaine stars in the three-hour production, set to air at 8 p.m. Sept. 13. Malcolm McDowell (of the classic "A Clockwork Orange") co-stars as Marc Bouchier, her confidant and business associate. Set your TiVo!

★ Contact Jenny Elig at (317) 444-6762 or jenny.elig@indystar.com.

